About Lucy Pittaway

Name

Lucy is an artist living in North Yorkshire. She has won lots of awards for her work and has become famous for her animal art. Her paintings are bright and happy with flowers, trees and animals such as sheep, cows, pigs, and dogs.

Lucy likes lots of colours. Some of her work is pink and yellow, some is green and blue and other work is dark brown and black.

How does Lucy draw and paint?

First Lucy draws her ideas in a sketchbook. Then she paints with soft chalk pastels, which she blends with her fingers and hands.

Where does she find ideas?

Lucy loves to make people smile. Her ideas come from the world around her. This could be from her children, funny animals on the farm where she lives or from her friends.

How did Lucy become an artist?

Name

Lucy has always loved arts and crafts.

As a very small girl, she spent hours drawing and colouring. As a child she loved to draw her family dog Toby, and their pet rabbit which was called Fluff. Lucy always painted as a hobby in her spare time. When her twins started school, she decided to follow her dreams and become an artist. She has never looked back!

- When Lucy finished school, she studied art and design at college and university.
- Afterwards she worked from home, making jewellery, hand-painted furniture and flower arrangements.
- After that she became a graphic designer and then a teacher.
